DAVID AND DANIEL TARKIAINEN. They're brothers, they're professionals, but most of all, they are two indescribable people who taught us, along with JULIUS CAESAR and quadratic functions, how to laugh. And it is this intangible quality that was, and will be, so essential to our education.

We want to dedicate our yearbook to them because we respect them, and because we like them, and mostly because of what they taught us.

Come Saturday

Morning

I'm Going Away

With My Friend;

We'll Saturday

Spend

Till The

End Of

The Day

Just I And My Friend.

We'll Travel For Miles

*In Our Saturday
Smiles,*

Yes, That's What We'll Do.

*Come Saturday Morning
I'm Going Away
With My Friend;*

We'll Saturday Laugh
More Than Half Of The Day.

Just I And My Friend,

Dressed Up In Our Rings

*And Our Saturday
Things*

And Then We'll

Move On

But We Will

Remember

Long After

Saturday's

FACULTY

Many members of the Class of '72 have spoken frequently about needed change and about involvement in effecting change. Effecting any significant change in the society involves people — people organized and working together. And people working together require leadership and followership. Many of you have shown leadership skills. Those of you who have had an opportunity to lead, who have accepted responsibility, who have had those you were leading support you, vie with you, or drop out of your team because they wanted to be leader or nothing — you have probably learned to become better followers when you are a member of someone else's team.

No one is skilled in all things — no one will be the leader in all situations. Inherited royalty is dead. At times, each of us must realize that we are the most knowledgeable member of the group for this particular task, and we must step to the fore. The rest of the time, each of us must promote and support the other person who is best qualified to lead us in our task, and we must then be a conscientious follower.

Peace be with you; not the peace of the cop-out; but the peace of the weary person who has toiled hard in support of a cause that inspires the best in him.

To the class of 1972

Challenging times lie ahead for you upon your graduation from Wachusett. Whether or not you can successfully meet these challenges depends largely on how well prepared you are to face the future. Wachusett has offered you some of the finest opportunities for learning to be found in any school in the East, perhaps in the whole country. If you have taken full advantage of these opportunities you should have no fear of what lies ahead for you. You are well prepared for whatever you may encounter.

Best wishes for a happy and successful future.

it comes as quite a surprise to find that all the time when we thought we were having fun — it turns out we were actually working hard making memories reflections of days of loving and living.

for what is life? —
that a man can change is direction for himself by sheer force of will yet he can, in no way, prolong its duration
when it is determined to relinquish itself
perhaps kaleidoscopic life only makes sense
when viewed with the enlightened vision of death.

PJ

perpetual youth,
i am grateful for our time together —
it all seems so real,
so right.
earth could have no claims on you,
man of freedom:
you have entered beyond the trivial — to whatever is ultimate smile on me
for i love you.

SCHOOL LIFE

QUEEN — MELISSA DAY

The Junior Class of Wachusett Regional High School
cordially invites you to attend
its Junior Prom
"GONE WITH THE WIND"
on Saturday, the fifteenth of May, Nineteen hundred and seventy-one at eight o'clock in the evening at Franklin Manor

Eileen and Ruth Sherwood broke away from home-ties to the "great" New York City. Then they met their lecherous landlord and felt the apartment shake as construction workers built a new subway under it. Next they met the previous attendant of their apartment. She was a prostitute who had conducted her business at home. Because the sisters leased the same apartment, her clients expected them to continue her occupation. How the sisters handle this situation and the men they meet — from a drug store owner to a group of Portuguese sailors — made a very entertaining and funny play.

POWDERPUFF FOOTBALL

FEMINISTS HIT THE GRIDIRON!

One fine day up on the football field the girls found themselves face to face in a football first. The senior girls, egged on by the fearsome cheerleaders, played one of the funniest games of the season.

Oh, sure!

I can't believe I ate the whole thing!

OOOOO, what I see!

There I was, surrounded by a thousand pygmies . . .

Hold still, Miss Baxter!

Whataya mean this isn't Doherty!!

"You say you play basketball?"

Eddie-E-D-D . . .

Well, so much for your rank — how were your boards?

SENIORITIS IS . . .

- . . . a curly-haired class president
- . . . a snowed-out Thanksgiving Day football game
- . . . getting measured for caps and gowns in September and growing three feet by June
- . . . finding out you can't graduate because you didn't pay your library fines
- . . . graduating with half the junior class
- . . . calling a student teacher by his first name 'cause you thought he was a new kid in the class
- . . . Maggie May, again, and again, and again
- . . . being glad you're not a freshman and then realizing you'll be one next year
- . . . having three seniors in the senior play
- . . . finishing SAT's and Achievements with a drained brain and numb bum
- . . . applying to twenty colleges hoping one will accept you
- . . . fighting with the smokers to get into the bathroom and fighting with the nonsmokers to stay there
- . . . learning to B.S. your way through a course
- . . . having a dynamite green machine
- . . . being "best buddies" with a guidance counselor
- . . . finding out who you've been going to school with for the last four years
- . . . bluejeans
- . . . American chop suey and peanut butter cake
- . . . "can I have your picture"
- . . . knowing you'll always remember the past four years

SPORTS

Starting off with an impressive victory over Fitchburg in the Jamboree, the 1971 football team looked title-bound. This was unfortunately not to be the case, however, as they were unable to generate the effective offense needed to overcome their foes. Four of their games went right down to the wire only to have the Mountaineers disappointed in defeat.

The team was led by the fine-spirited play of co-captains Brad Peck and Mitch Griffin, Brad being elected to the Central Massachusetts All-Class All-Star Team. This is the first time ever that a Wachusett player has achieved this honor.

D HOCKEY

The girls' varsity field hockey team completed a "building" season with an 8-3-0 record. The inexperienced team improved with hard work and long practices to once again obtain the reputation of "the team to beat." With many promising J.V.'s and underclassmen, next year's team is headed for an undefeated season.

Victory followed the Wachusett Cross Country team throughout New England this year. The tradition of excellence inspired by Coach Warren and the leadership shown by tri-captains Andy Blanchard, Alan Briggs and Dennis MacCallum carried the team to a final record of 8-1-1.

Alan set a new school record with a time of 12:06. He went on to capture third place in the state and sixth in New England. Dennis was not far behind, finishing fifth in the state and fourteenth in New England.

SOCCER

This was the first year of competition for the Wachusett Varsity Soccer team. Despite their relative inexperience and a limited schedule of only four games, the team did a commendable job; they tied in half of their matches and lost both remaining games by a single goal. The soccer team was jointly coached by Mr. Peter Sidman and Mr. Richard Knight. Senior standouts for Wachusett were Nino Yampey, Ted Kirkpatrick and Fred Greis. With many fine juniors on the squad, the soccer team is looking ahead to a big year as well as a longer schedule.

SAILING

The fall of 1971 was a winning one for the newly formed Wachusett Sailing Team. In 16-foot Rebel class sloops, Wachusett was victorious in several scrimmages against the Worcester Academy Team. In the Wachusett Invitational Regatta, once again our team won, the score: Wachusett — 39, Worcester — 144. Spring of 1972 will mark the team's participation in the highly competitive New England Prep School Sailing Association. Let's hope the sailing team, co-captained by David Fish and James Hall and coached by Miss Baxter and Mr. Swanson, can continue winning in the future!

BASKETBALL 1971-72

The 1971-72 Wachusett Mountaineers played their toughest schedule ever as they took on five league champions. The Mountaineers established a reputation of a team that wouldn't quit. Despite the loss of Mitchell Griffin, this strong team accomplished the following:

- 15 and 5 record against the very best teams.
- North Central Mass. Conference Champions (undefeated).
- 71-70 win over Doherty, one of the team's all time great wins.
- after losing 73-72 to Bartlett in overtime, the Mountaineers beat Bartlett at Webster, 71-69, in overtime, of course.
- District III Qualifiers.
- after breaking the school's scoring record, Kent Jolliff went on to capture the NCMC scoring title.

HOCKEY 1971-72

For an unprecedented third year in a row the mighty Green Machine won the Central Mass. Hockey league title. The team started out the season fast, going through the first round of play without a league loss. However, with many of the other teams improving a great deal, the second round was a little disappointing as the Machine lost 2 and tied another. The team was led by Captain Neil Drawbridge, who was voted MVP in the CMHL, and Alternate Captains, Phil Freese and David Santom, both of whom received Honorable Mentions in the league All-Star team along with goalie Dave White. With the steady supply of talent, the rigorous coaching of Mr. Bouvier and the continued support of the school, the team is assured of future success.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Cheers from the sidelines followed the Girls' Varsity Basketball team as they closed the season with a strong 18-4 record. After a few losses early in the season, the team was spurred on to a 9 game winning streak and won an invitation to the Southbridge Tournament. They were downed, however, by last year's rivals — Notre Dame. Next year's team will undoubtedly advance this standing. There are already five underclassmen on the team and many promising players from the J.V. squad. Good luck in '73!

WINTER TRACK 1972

All teams have their rebuilding years and this could probably be termed as such a year for the winter track team, which finished its season with a 4-5 record. Despite losing its first dual meet, the team, coached by Fred Warren, had its share of successes; including wins over Fitchburg, St. Johns, North, and South. A big team effort gave the Mountaineers a second place in the Central Mass. Suburban League championship meet, which left them third in the CMSL standings.

Co-captains were: Andy Blanchard and Richard Huard.

We all went to Wachusett and had the same teachers; we all read MOBY DICK, know what a Green Machine is and ate the cafeteria food. But there is more that brings us together. We have experienced so many things distinctly the product of our time. No one, except us, will ever know what it was like to go to Wachusett between 1968 and 1972, and we will only be able to tell them about those things we know so well . . .

there's a road
upon which we all can walk where we all can see the same sun and hear the same sounds smell the same flowers it's on this road that we see each other, for brief moments sometimes long where we walk together hand in hand
the level of constance communion with all there is something which we can be something we can see the act of walking on this road and what comes of being together is called many things some call it love
so be it so it is and ever will be
